

Christian Endeavor Team Will Present Young People's Service

Young people will take charge of church services at Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church this Sunday evening, according to the pastor, Rev. H. H. Miller.

A Christian Endeavor team, consisting of Harold Holstein, director of singing; Paul Maule, pianist, and Robert Hauert, sololist, will conduct a typical young people's service. This will be the second of regularly scheduled Sunday evening services this year. The first service, held last Sunday, was "Old Hymns Night," with congregational singing of favorite hymns, led by Carl Pisel. Miss Myrna Osnes played two accordion solos.

Rev. Miller's topic this Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock will be "The Acid Test of Religion." Last Sunday morning, Wilhard Wolford, Mrs. Betty Muly, Mrs. Vera Hamby, and Mrs. Hilda Carter joined the church, while Allen James Wolford and Denise Rochelle Hamby were baptized.

Rev. Sippel Installation Set Sunday

Rev. Harry Milton Sippel will be officially installed as pastor of the First Christian Church in ceremonies Sunday at 11 a.m.

The morning's message will be delivered by the installing officer, Dr. Clifford Cole, secretary of the Christian Churches of Southern California.

Rev. Sippel arrived in Torrance last week from Lawrence, Kans., where he served for eight years. He delivered his first sermon last Sunday.

Methodists Slate Forum

"The City," will be the topic of a forum to be held in the Community Methodist Church of Waveria beginning next Thursday from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

The forum will consider the role of religion in the city, both for the individual and for the community itself.

A nursery for those attending will be held in the home of Mrs. Gene Anderson, of 8225 Dalemead St.

Liberian Missionary To Talk at HC Church

Rev. W. J. Kornelsen, who recently returned from three and a half years as a missionary in Liberia, will speak tonight at the Harbor City Revival Tabernacle, at 26th St. and Normandie Ave., at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Kornelsen and his family will present colored movies, native singing, costumes, and other curios to illustrate the life of an African missionary, according to Pastor Fred Martin.

PASTOR GOFFAR

Holy Spirit Sermon Topic For Saturday

Why the Holy Spirit manifested himself in "tongues of fire" on Pentecost will be the subject of the sermon presented by Pastor Glenn L. Goffar at the Saturday morning service at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave.

Mr. Goffar recently assumed his duties as new pastor of the church in Torrance. A veteran of many years of pastoral and evangelistic experience, Pastor Goffar has joined an evangelistic group in a large tent campaign in Harbor City, on Pacific Coast Hwy., one block east of Western Ave.

He spoke on "The Vicar of Christ" last Saturday.

All are welcome to his new "Prophecy Class," to be held each Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m. Emphasis will be placed on great prophecies in the Bible. Further information can be obtained at FA 8-3258.

First Baptist Youth Plan Party Tonight

A back-to-school party will be held at the First Baptist Church of Waveria tonight at 7 p.m.

Mrs. C. C. Lilly will show a missionary film. Special music by the young people, an old-fashioned spelling bee, and choral singing of favorite songs are included in the evening's program.

POTASH USER—An estimated 90 per cent of the world supply of potash is absorbed in agricultural processes.

DISTRICT CHURCH SING PLANNED BY BAPTISTS

The South Bay Baptist Church will be host to the Centinela Division of Christian Endeavor All-Church Sing on Sunday from 9 to 10 p.m., according to Rev. George F. Cain.

The third in a series of messages of stewardship will be presented by the pastor at the morning service, while "Divine and the Branches" will be his topic in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. Junior church aid child care is offered in the morning.

Mrs. C. W. Stevenson will speak to Christian Endeavor groups at 8:30 p.m. Sunday school classes will meet at 9:45 a.m. Transportation will be furnished by calling FR 5-5469.

Church Plans Dinner

A spaghetti dinner will be sponsored by the Altar Guild of the Park View Lutheran Church tomorrow at 6 p. m. in the church, 14817 Crenshaw Blvd. A free will offering for the altar fund will be taken after the dinner.

Baptists Will Hear African Missionaries

Missionaries Phyllis and Heber Richins will conduct both morning and evening services at the First Baptist Church of Waveria Sunday.

A former member of the Waveria church, Mrs. Richins and her husband are now associated with the Interior Sudan Mission in Africa. The couple recently returned to the United States. They will show slides of their work at the evening services.

Morning services are at 11 o'clock and evening services at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday school youngsters will be promoted to new classes, and will receive certificates of promotion.
